At the May Meeting

Congressman Mike Quigley - 5th District

South Lakeview Neighbors would like to thank the Congressman for his visit at the May membership meeting. The meeting was well attended with many questions put to the Congressman. Mr. Quigley had to defer answers on many questions, as the issues pertained to local items that the Congressman does not weigh in on.

However, Mr. Quigley touched on the following topics :

Visits to Haiti after the earthquake and the relief effort.

Trips with Senator Kirk to Poland, Israel and most recently Ukraine (where their every move was shadowed by people of unknown background).

Visits to soldiers at Walter Reed Veterans Hospital in the wake of the medical scandal.

His activities on the Appropriations Committee and how his votes affect the CTA, Metra and Bridge rebuilding that is in dire need of immediate attention.

Pet Coke - sponsored a bill in conjunction with the EPA to deal with this issue.

Immigration Reform - looking for a common sense approach that he believes will reduce the National Deficit and increase GNP, if passed.

Urban Crime - finding funds for more police and programs to keep drug addicts off drugs and out of overcrowded prisons.

Military - working on ways to bring the military into the modern age and change the philosophy from the Cold War model that has been used for so many years.

See Congressman Quigley's website for more detailed at www.guigley.house.gov
