A few words from our President:

Late Night Musings from Barry Avenue

I hope everyone in South Lakeview Neighbors had a wonderful and enjoyable Thanksgiving with close family and friends. I do not have an immediate family of my own but I do have large extended family of brothers, nieces, nephews, cousins and various Greek and Italian in-laws all who live in the close in and far out burbs. All are great cooks, have tight knit families and believe in traditional hospitality especially at holiday time. With all of the fractious voices, hand gestures, opinions, bad jokes and unsolicited advice it is remarkable we never talked politics? Being the oldest brother and with the passing of time I now find myself elevated to the position of family patriarch ... or maybe just the crazy uncle. Needless to say, a good time was had by all and I sincerely hope you had the same.

Another good time is approaching - SLN ANNUAL HOLIDAY PARTY, Tuesday, Dec 13 at Will's Northwoods Inn at the corner of Racine and Nelson. Between the hours of 6:30pm and 8:30pm there will be a free open bar for drinks and a well stocked buffet of Will's favorites- beef, chicken & tuna sliders, chicken tenders, fries, cheese curds, Chicago Hot dogs, pasta, salads etc and deserts. Along with our Liquor and "split the pot raffle" benefiting the winner and Lakeview Food Pantry we will have various gift prizes from restaurants, hair salons, bike repair, pizzerias etc, so bring a few extra bucks. All SLN members, immediate family and neighborhood friends are invited. We will see you there.

Now for some neighborhood current events. Our 19th District Police Commander Robert Cesario has been reassigned after 18 months to be liaison officer with the Office of Emergency Management. He is replaced by a 32 year police veteran Commander Marc Buslik. Commander Cesario was invited but did not appear at a SLN meeting because in his words he "prioritized his limited time to street police work". Previous Commander Elias Vurlgais had a different unprecedented style where he would speak with "any community group at any time". Because of this Cesario might have seemed aloof and uninterested to some but I feel in his own way he did a very good job in spite of the CPD restrictions on making aggressive police stops. He was pro-active in implementing control during weekends at over- crowded Montrose Harbor, all of the Cubs celebrations, "EL" station vicinity security and late night entertainment districts teams. Also, a number of high profile arrests were made immediately after the crimes were perpetrated. I am keenly aware of the need for cross-training but I currently do not understand reshuffling district commanders every 18 - 24 months.

There is a meet and greet reception for Commander Buslik at the 19th District HQ, 850 W. Addison, Tue Dec 6, 6 -8pm. Feel free to attend and I will also reach out and try to schedule him for one of our general meetings.

Mark your calendars for January 10th where we will have a makeup general membership meeting at the Athenaeum for the Nov 8th meeting that was postponed due to the Presidential election. We will have a SLN School Forum where local families with current or future school age children can listen, question and meet the principals of local high profile schools including Burley, Jahn, Agassiz, Prescott and Lakeview HS. All SLN residents are not within all of each school's boundaries but can still manage to send their children to the school of their choice.

Finally, a few words about the recent "most important election of our lifetime" [I hear this same phrase every 4 years]. It seems that no matter who won - HRC or DJT about half the U.S. populace would either be sad, shocked or very upset. Locally you may find the dialog from colleagues, friends and family greatly amplified due to the final voting results:

	Clinton	Trump
City Wide	83.6%	12.6%
Lakeview	82.7%	11.6%
32 Ward	82%	11.8

Regardless of how you voted we should all hope for the best for our country and that all of our elected officials govern with strength, wisdom and compassion. It would be welcomed.

As usual, feel free to let me know how feel.

Thanks and take care. Sam

New Commander to Lead 19th District

After 19 months as our 19th District, Chicago Police Commander Robert Cesario is packing up. It was recently announced that Commander Marc Buslik, a 32-year veteran of the department, will replace Cesario. The Chicago Police Department routinely shuffles command-level staff every 18 to 24 months. Since February, Buslik has been working as the department's liaison with federal investigators who are reviewing Chicago's police operations. Before that, he was the commander of the 14th District, which protects much of Bucktown, Wicker Park and Avondale.

Come meet the new Commander at an open house reception on Tuesday, Dec. 6th from 6:00pm to 8:00pm in the 19th District Community Room at 850 W. Addison. Coffee and cookies will be served.

Email = commish@fritchey.com

Updates from Cook County Commissioner John Fritchey:

1) In a historic move, the Cook County Board of Commissioners recently approved the Cook County Taxation Predictability and Long-Term Fiscal Forecasting Amendment, a proposal championed by Cook County Commissioner John Fritchey that will freeze the County's property and sales tax rates until January 1, 2020. After that date, should the Board increase either the sales or property tax, a freeze of both taxes will be triggered prohibiting the County from raising either of those taxes again for the following three years. The ordinance further requires that prior to any future efforts to increase either the sales or property tax rates, the Cook County Bureau of Finance must provide the Board with a fiscal forecast that analyzes revenues, expenditures and planned debt issuance for three years should the tax change occur.

2) Recently the Cook County Board Committee on Finance passed an ordinance to raise the tax on any beverage containing any sweetener (Coke, Diet Coke, Gatorade, grape juice, etc.) by a penny per ounce. The tax will increase the cost of a 12-pack of cans of soft drinks by $1.44. The proposed tax is expected to raise $223 million annually.

SOUTH LAKEVIEW NEIGHBORS

Mr. Fritchey reports "that while I understand the adverse impacts that too much sugar can have on a person's health, I also know that my constituents are facing new taxes every time they turn around. That is why I once again stood with and voted NO on the proposed tax. I believe that this tax hike is based more on revenue needs than on health concerns and is just another way for government to avoid having to tighten its own belt."

2016 ELECTION RESULTS by Bill Haderlein

Truly a historic Presidential Election. As the popular vote results dribble in, Hillary Clinton has more than 2 million votes than Donald Trump. My wife and newsletter editor, Jeanne H. pretty much controls the main TV in the living room. She settled in on Rachel Maddow's (a big Trump hater) election night program. Ms. Maddow's head appeared to be almost exploding as the night's results started turning against Clinton and political commentator Chris Matthews had to talk her down from the ledge. I do miss Dan Rather and his crazy comments as results from each State would come in. At about 11ish, Jeanne H. couldn't believe the results and threatened to turn off the TV. She had the same threat when the Cubs blew their lead in the 7th game of the World Series. I stayed up to 12:30AM, but when the Electoral Vote totals were not budging, I had to hit the sack, as I had an end of season golf trip up to Lake Geneva planned early the next morning. The election would not affect my golf, but lack of sleep might. The last time I stayed up that late for an election was Harold Washington's upset victory in the Democratic Mayoral Primary over incumbent Mayor Jane Byrne and States Attorney Richard Daley. Wednesday morning, with the TV still set to MSNBC, the scroll on the bottom announced Trump as the winner. Knowing the potentiality of his victory when I went to bed, the result was not nearly as shocking as my Dad telling me that Cassius Clay (later Muhammed Ali) beat Sonny Liston for the heavyweight boxing crown when I was 7 years old. The City of Chicago seemed in a daze after the election, but my staunch Republican friends in the suburbs were very happy. I assumed that many in Chicago voted for Trump, but were not advertising. But the local results showed that our 32nd Ward voted 82% for Clinton and 12% for Trump. Overall Chicago was 84% for Clinton and 12% for Trump.

Of all the political analysis that came after the election, the most interesting I saw was when I tuned into TNT basketball on Thursday night for Bulls-Celtics game to watch the pregame with Charles Barkley, Shaquille O'Neal, Kenny the Jet and Ernie Johnson and the only thing discussed was the election. Charles, Kenny and Shaq were all disappointed with the results but stated that now that it's over, the country needs to respect and support the office of the President and give Trump a chance.

Local Elections:

It is hard to be a Republican in Chicago. With ringing endorsements from the Tribune, incumbents Congressman Mike Quigley received 67% of all votes and State Rep. Ann Williams received 71%. The victors have all been regular speakers at SLN meetings; however, all of the defeated candidates also appeared at SLN meetings back in the primaries. I would like to congratulate all the candidates for sticking their necks out and running in an environment that I feel is going to get uglier and uglier with the convenience of voters being able to put hateful and maybe not true comments out on social media.

The Electoral College revisited:

The Electoral College was created for two reasons: 1) to create a buffer between population and the selection of a President and 2) part of the structure to the government that gave extra power to the smaller, less densely populated states.

The first reason was due to the founding fathers being afraid of direct popular vote election to the Presidency. They feared a tyrant could manipulate public opinion and come to power. In the Federalist Papers, Alexander Hamilton and the founding fathers believed that a small number of persons, selected by their fellow-citizens (the Electoral College), would be able to insure that only a qualified person becomes President, no candidate would be able to manipulate the citizenry and act as a check on an electorate that might be duped. Hamilton and the other founders did not trust the population to make the right choice.

The Electoral College was also a part of a compromise made to satisfy the smaller, less populated states. Under the College, each state has the same number of electoral votes as they have representatives in Congress. No state would have less than three votes (2 senators, 1 congressman). The result is that a less populous state like Wyoming (210,000 votes) gets an elector for each 70,000 voters, while a big state like California (9,700,000 votes) gets an elector for each 179,000 voters. This gives an advantage to voters in the small states. The winner take all electoral votes system in all states but Maine and Nebraska, is the recipe for a candidate winning the Electoral College vote and losing the popular vote.

Hillary Clinton wound up with 2.9 million votes and Donald Trump with 2.15 million. Ms. Clinton won California and New York by a almost 5 million votes combined and took the 84 electoral votes. Mr. Trump won Florida, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Wisconsin by only 930,000 votes combined, but received all 92 electoral votes. The final Electoral College map bore out some of the founding fathers concerns, as Clinton won almost all states with major metropolitan areas, while Trump won the rest. Did the system work? Based on the Founding Fathers reasoning, yes. Will it change? A Constitutional Amendment needs to be ratified by 3/4 of the states. It is doubtful that the smaller states would agree to a change. As for states changing the winner take all, those in power at that time would be unlikely to agree to that change. In 224 years of Presidential elections, the popular vote did not produce the final winner in three elections (John Quincy Adams over Andrew Jackson in 1824, Rutherford B. Hayes over Samuel Tilden in 1876 and Benjamin Harrison over Grover Cleveland in 1888. However, in twice in the last five elections, that was the case (Bush over Gore in 2000).

Restaurant Review by Susan R. La Gondola - 2914 N. Ashland in the Jewel Store Mall

Make sure you have a reservation as there are only 22 seats. I have eaten here twice, with companions, and had the opportunity to sample. Appetizers included Black Mussels in a marinara sauce and Grilled Calamari - both very nice. I suggest you ask that the calamari be prepared with very, very light oil or the dish is dripping -- overwhelming. The Chopped Salad was tasty and can be substituted with another cheese other than Blue if you are not partial to Blue Cheese. House dressing is fresh and can be offered on the side. The Minestrone Soup was a pleasant surprise as I am not a fan. The soup featured cabbage, zucchini and white beans. Have your server garnish with grated cheese. Very hearty!

As for entrees, the Linguini with Clam Sauce is a solid staple. It can be ordered with white or red sauce. I opted for red; found it enjoyable. The Spaghetti Carbonara was good but not what I expected. I did not see any egg and expected more tomatoes. A suggestion, ask for additional sauce for the pastas so as not to be too dry. The Veal Saltimbocca was delicious. Great flavor in the wine sauce with mushrooms, prosciutto, served with steamed broccoli.

Tiramisu and Cannoli made for great finish. Wine list is limited, but nicely priced by the glass or bottle.

Cannot comment on the pizza. However, I have heard it is some of the best in the city.
