Late Night Musings from Barry Avenue:

September is the start of a new fiscal term for South Lakeview Neighbors and I find myself in the position of facilitating the organization for another year. I would like to take a moment to thank our volunteer board members, officers and concerned members for all of the past help received. It should be noted that many of them are very busy experts and professionals in their respective careers. I would especially like to recognize Bill and Jeanne Haderlein for producing our monthly newsletter and for Bill acting as our Recording Secretary. Words cannot describe the decades long contributions from long time resident Ann Sychowski who is our treasurer and the "iron lady" overlooking our cash flow. Steve Stern, our web master-mind, has spent countless hours managing our data base, web site and social media. Single handily he has brought us into the 21st century. [If you or your firm has an IT problem, he is the problem solver at Stern Data to hire]. A special thanks goes to Ed Silverstein for his excellent newsletter advertising set up. You should contact him at Lakeview Computer Specialists if you have a PC, Mac or networking problem. Also, a special shout out to Susan Radzinowicz, an ace realtor with Berkshire Hathaway for volunteering whenever an assignment needs to be done. THANKS AGAIN ALL FOR YOUR COMMITMENT AND HELP and I look forward to working with all of you again to continually improve SLN.

The Ann & Len Sychowski Good Neighbor Award was given to the most deserving Joe Semerling, former board member and past chair and founder of the Neighborhood Development Review Committee, NDRC. Joes' past efforts were instrumental in formulating SLN into a highly desirable, in demand, family orientated neighborhood. Joe is not one to call attention to himself but if you see him at a membership meeting feel free to congratulate him and thank him for his service to the community.

We are always trying to make our monthly community get-togethers interesting and relevant and are always open to suggestion and comments. You can easily reach me with your input at president@slneighbors.org. I would really like to hear what you would like to see and hear at our meetings. Looking forward to this year we have already developed a pretty good lineup:

- Sept: Alderman Scott Waguespack w/ "state of the ward" and city hall update, LEMAY Auto Parts @ 3130 Lincoln zoning change voting issue.
- Oct: zoning upgrades voting on 2930 Lincoln, 3045 Ashland
- Nov: Education Options w/ Principals from all schools in the area
- Dec: highly anticipated Holiday party

There will be additions, surprises and changes all announced in the newsletter, FB and in our emails to members. The 1st of the year is the start of Primary season and we will hear, question and challenge various politicians, dreamers and wannabes for local and state offices. If you happen to have a special relationship with a political candidate please feel free to use your influence to have him or her present to SLN.

Mark your calendars for the 2nd Tuesday of each month and I will look forward to seeing and talking with all of you again.

Thanks and take care, Sam

SEPTEMBER 2017 MEETING PREVIEW

ALDERMAN SCOTT WAGUESPACK - STATE OF THE WARD

The Alderman will give the membership his annual update on the Ward and City of Chicago operations. The Alderman will speak on specific Ward issues as well as City-wide politics and finances. The Alderman has been representing the 32nd Ward for 10 years.

3130 LINCOLN / LeMAY AUTO PARTS - ZONING CHANGE REQUEST

Owner is requesting a zoning upgrade from B-1 to B-3.

Follow this scenario for this one-story stand-alone building.

The owner of Lemay Auto Parts located on 2600 Halsted sells that building and in a separate transaction the LeMay Auto Parts business to a New Owner.

Former LeMay Owner purchases 3130 Lincoln and has the New Owner move the LeMay Auto Parts business into 3130 Lincoln.

After moving in, the Former LeMay Owner (owner of 3130 Lincoln) and his attorney are informed or realize that the B-1 zoning at 3130 Lincoln does not allow for an auto parts store.

The attorney applies for an upgrade in zoning to B-3. Lemay Auto Parts is currently open and operating while waiting for the zoning change.

The major issue, there are many businesses allowed under B-3, such as an Amusement arcade or dry cleaning plant, that are not allowed under the current B-1.

SEAFOOD on the TABLES - Restaurant presentation

This business has been open for a few months. The owners will present their unique concept to the members. Food samples?

FREE DRINK for all SEPTEMBER MEETING ATTENDEES

In what has become a yearly tradition, all meeting attendees will receive a drink compliments of SLN. The bar tab will be donated to the Athenaeum Restoration Fund.

At the SLN SUMMER PARTY ON JULY 11 - Will's Northwoods Inn: 6:30PM to 8:30PM

Comfortable weather brought out a big crowd to Will's beer garden. All the outside tables were taken and a few inside tables were being used. The woodsy beer garden bar was lined with the drinking maximizers. Will's put out a great spread of brats, cheeseburgers and cheese curds along with other summer fare.

SPLIT the POT RAFFLE proceeds were donated to THE LAKEVIEW PANTRY. County Commissioner John Fritchey donated 50 free admission tickets to Brookfield Zoo that were raffled off.

Joe Semerling, long-time SLN officer/director, original member and chairman of the Neighborhood Development and Review Committee (NDRC) and life-time resident of SLN received the Len & Ann Sychowski Good Neighbor Award. SLN thanks you for all the volunteer time you and the other NDRC members spent on zoning change requests that kept the SLN boundaries intact as single-family neighborhood. For the years that Joe chaired the NDRC, the volunteer time he spent reviewing plans and meeting with developers was probably more than any SLN officer including the president. Imagine that the 1500 block of George Street could have been a row of towering 3-unit condo buildings instead of all single family houses, if not for the foresight and work put in by the NDRC starting in the early 1990's until present under Joe Semerling's leadership. The historically verbose Mr. Semerling only had to say that "I am humbled."

Thanks to Will's Northwoods Inn for hosting the party and donating the menu. I highly suggest SLN members visit the beer garden bar while the weather is still warm.

Bill Haderlein's Annual Report on the Walk Around the Neighborhood

I am always walking around. Up and down Southport and Lincoln Ave. Over to Roscoe Village. Around Wrigley Field during a night game. Part exercise and part people watching. But once a year I stroll the SLN streets and try to take notice what has changed since our last meeting in May.

Usually I would do a street by street inventory. This time I am going to break it into 1) Restaurants and 2) Everything else.

Restaurants:

S&G Restaurant - now open again at nights until 8PM. They have their liquor license and they are advertising $15 buckets of beer on their banner. Also encouraging patrons to BYOS (Bring your own Soda). In protest to the Tony Preckwinckle Soda Tax, S&G will supply the glass and the ice if you wish to bring your own pop to the restaurant. Anyway, it should be called a "Pop" Tax, as the only people I know that drink "soda" live on the East Coast.

Sal's Trattoria @ Wolfram & Southport is open. Word on the street is good. Chicago Magazine listed Sal's as one of the 10 new hottest spots in a recent issue.

Las Reinas (the Queen) (formerly B&B) @ Ashland & Wellington. They may have hit on a successful menu featuring boutique tacos and some simple meat entrees. The crowds, especially outside, are much improved. Still featuring an eclectic beer menu. These are the same owners, just trying to get it right or righter.

Seafood on the Tables @ 2965 N. Lincoln - not quite sure what is going on here. Also appears to be a carry-out or delivery for Thai on the Tables.

*Please take note of our new and repeat advertisers and try to patronize them.
Tell them you saw their ad in the South Lakeview Neighbors Newsletter.*

However, they will be appearing at the September 2017 SLN meeting.

Grand River Bar & Grill @ 3032 Lincoln - Big banner says "Under New Ownership". Will you meet your next mate in this cozy little bar with intimate booths?

Diplomat Cafe (formerly Ala Turka) @ 3134 Lincoln. - sign says "where east meets west". That appears to mean Eastern Europe meets the USA. That seems like a recipe for some sanctions. Looks like some action in there at times.

Coming soon:

Tied House at Schubas - remember when Mike Schuba, who has sold the business but still manages Schubas, came to the SLN meeting with the new owners to inquire about an outside cafe in the parking lot. That plan is dead and The Tied, in what looks to be a major restaurant, is being constructed. The name refers to an old practice in which large breweries would buy out neighborhood taverns and "tie" the tavern exclusively to their beer (see the brick Schlitz logo on Schubas.) According to "Eater Chicago", the restaurant will offer local Midwestern ingredients and an extensive beer list. This Editor is sticking with Coors Lite, Miller Lite and Bud Lite, in order of preference. But if you are drinking a Coors, I might switch to a Bud so you do not drink out of my bottle. I also wash my hands a lot, in case you need an emergency appendectomy.

El Tequilas (formerly Gyros on the Spit) @ 2826 Lincoln. Saw a Public Notice sign in the window dated 7/3/17 for incidental liquor and an outdoor patio. Windows are covered with paper at this point.

Freezing Point @ 3127 Ashland in the dark gray metal-sided building that looks like it could withstand a hail of bullets, next to the Cash America Pawn Shop. Hand-rolled ice cream and bubble tea? (double question mark on that).

Closed:

Snaggletooth @ 2819 Southport. Rave reviews for its' cured fish smears. What happened? Appeared at an SLN meeting as a boyfriend/girlfriend business. Maybe that working relationship did not work out. Who knows? My wife worked for me at Chicagoland Deck for 10+ years and it was a blast. I hope she reads this.

Jim Noodle & Rice @ 2819 Lincoln in the little red building. My "go to lunch" Thai Restaurant. Now that was a husband and wife business and it seemed unbearably hot by grill. Maybe they just couldn't take the heat. As you know, if you can't stand the heat, get out of the kitchen. Now what am I going to do for a cheap Thai lunch?

New businesses or observation:

Some of these places may have been open for awhile and I have just not noticed.

Mike & Toli at Home @ 3066 Lincoln - interior designers. Looks like they are still setting up operations. www.MikeAndYoli.com

Home Carpet @ Barry & Lincoln remodeling looks mostly done. The 2nd floor windows are now visible. Serious dark gray/light gray paint job on the exterior of the building. Matches my wardrobe.

Elbo Room @ Lincoln & George has new snazzy window designs. A few months ago, the word was that the Elbo Room was in danger of closing. Was last in there maybe in the early 1990's? Move over old man.

Lincoln & Diversey 4 story building in the previous forever vacant lot. This was an SLN/NDRC project that the SLN membership voted on. Sales sign says "Lincoln Pointe - Boutique Condo Building". Huge improvement on the gateway to the South Lakeview Neighbors area.

Tri-Products Printing & Rubber Stamp @ 2915 Lincoln, home of businessman Steve Wigand, who was a prolific neighborhood walker with his dog Stamper (get it). Demolished for a 4-story retail/condo building, going lot line to lot, Lincoln to Lakewood.

3080 Lincoln office space at Lincoln & Barry (former offices of National Runaway Safeline) appears to be almost fully completed. ICM Properties signage on the door. Are they moving from Belmont?

People Spot @ Chicago Pizza. More urban art than a comfortable spot to sit. If you have a cup of coffee, it better be a small or you'll have a back or butt ache by the time you get up.

*Please take note of our new and repeat advertisers and try to patronize them.
Tell them you saw their ad in the South Lakeview Neighbors Newsletter.*

Comprehensive Wellness Care @ 3152 Lincoln. The sign says "Now Open". Women's Health/Obsterics/Family Health
LeMay Auto Parts @ 3130 Lincoln (formerly Lifestyle Physical Therapy & Balance Center). An odd location for an auto parts store. Mostly independent auto service centers call in for parts and LeMay delivers it to the service center. Walk in customers are welcome. Appearing at September 2017 SLN meeting for zoning change.

Xfinity (Comcast) @ 3128 Ashland - totally renovated Chase Bank spot. Very sharp looking. We cannot have enough internet/cable shops.

3044 Ashland - 3 story condo building where that crappy one story medical building was. Brought to you by none other than Sergio & Banks Real Estate.

Orange Theory Fitness in the Lakeview Plaza Mall @ Ashland & Wellington. In the former spaces of the Washing Well and the Electrolysis Center. To open in early October. This is going to be a shot in the arm for this shopping area. Drop the kids at Foss Swimming, get a 60 minute group workout in at Orange Theory and duck into the liquor store for some booze before picking up the kids at swimming lessons.

Herdegan Funeral Home development - the owners appeared in February and March 2017 in front of the SLN members. Alderman Waguespack's office reports on August 24, 2017, that they have not received any updates regarding progress toward the owner obtaining permits or proposed construction start dates. The Alderman's office has been in communication with the owner's regarding site maintenance issues.

I just have to mention the Haderlein Real Estate & Insurance retro-neon sign at 3049 N. Ashland. After decades of hodge-podge repairs (under the long-term maintenance contract), the Haderlein boys have had the sign repainted and the neon lights replaced so it mostly all matches. It looks great and I never get tired of looking at it with family pride. I slept in my Gramma's front bedroom with my oldest brother with that sign shining through the window in the 1960's, when our parents would dump the five Haderlein kids off with the grandparents for the weekend. In business since 1910 and an SLN advertiser. Bill Haderlein-editor
