The Nominating Committee shall present a slate of officers at the May meeting, with election taking place in June, and the officers assuming the duties of their offices following the election. The provisions of this section do not prohibit nominations from the membership.

Section 3.

The term of office shall be one year, and no officer shall be eligible to serve more than two (2) consecutive terms in the same office. Another term or terms is permissible for any office, if no candidate can be found by the Nominating Committee or the membership-at-large at the May meeting.

Section 4.

A special election may be held at any membership meeting to fill vacancies in the Executive Committee.

Section 5.

Any officer or director accepted in executive office who has missed three unexcused consecutive meetings may be dismissed from their position by a vote of the membership. (3/93)

Section 6.

The election process is defined as follows:

At the May membership meeting the Nominating Committee shall submit its slate of officers. Further nominations will be received from the floor.

A written notice of all candidates will then be mailed to all members for the June meeting. At the June meeting of the membership the election will take place.

Procedure for an election will be as follows:

1. All candidates shall present themselves to the membership. (A two minute limit for each candidate.)
2. The membership shall vote by secret ballot. To be eligible to vote, you must be a recognized member by the April meeting.

3. The election judges are:

- a. Chairperson of the Nominating Committee
- b. Chairperson of the Membership
- c. And three members at large elected by the membership.

4. The election judges shall count the ballots and announce the winners at the June meeting.

5. All ballots are to be sealed in an envelope with a list of the members that voted and with a final vote count. These ballots are to be kept for three months by the Recording Secretary. After this time has passed, only the vote count will be retained in the South Lakeview Neighbors file.

6. In order to have a recount, a candidate must file a written request with the Recording Secretary no later than the September membership meeting. If a request is filed, the ballots shall be retained until the outcome is determined.

7. If a recount is requested, a special recount committee shall be formed at the September meeting. The special recount committee will be made up of the following:

- a. A representative chosen by the winner.
- b. A representative chosen by the one requesting a recount.
- c. And three representatives chosen by the membership-at-large.

No candidate may serve on this committee. And only members who were eligible to vote in the election will be eligible to serve on this committee.

8. The committee's decision will be final.

If accepted in Executive office a member should be in good standing for at least one (1) year (7-86).

Article VI - Committees

There shall be such committees of such members and qualifications, and having such powers and duties as are necessary to efficiently discharge the purposes of the organization. Said committees to be responsible and subject to the approval and advice of the Executive Committee.

Article VII - Meetings

Section 1.

Meetings of the membership shall be held not less than eight (8) times a year at a time and place designated by the Executive Committee.

Section 2.

A special meeting shall be called upon request of the President or by a petition signed by thirty-five (35) members.

Section 3.

Except as may be otherwise provided in these by-laws, for all purposes, the act of majority of the members present shall, at any meeting which there is a quorum of twenty four (24) (4/15) present, be the act of this organization.

Section 4.

All matters not governed by these by-laws shall be determined by Roberts Rules of Order, Revised.

Article VIII - Amendments

These by-laws may be amended at any meeting of the membership of this organization by an affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3), a quorum being present, provided the proposed amendment has been sent in writing with the call of the meeting.

Article IX - Liability Insurance

South Lakeview Neighbors shall carry sufficient Liability Insurance to insure all Officers and Directors from any liability in carrying out their duties of the organization. South Lakeview Neighbors shall indemnify all Officers and Directors from any losses occasioned by the performance of their prescribed duties. (4/15)
